A LITTLE BIT ABOUT ME...

Hi, I'm John! I'm a professional filmmaker, photographer and content creator dedicated to inspiring adventurers to explore this beautiful planet of ours. I am consistently looking for any way I can tell a story, whether that be through filmmaking, photography or digital media. I am always eager to capture and document my travels around the world with my camera that rarely leaves my side. I look forward to my next adventure - wherever, whatever and whenever that may be.

SOCIAL MEDIA

WHAT CAN I OFFER?

CONTENT CREATION

I create highly-engaging, eye-catching content that is designed to promote a destination, product or service. This content can be used for your brand's marketing campaigns, website and/or social platforms, depending on the goals you have in mind.

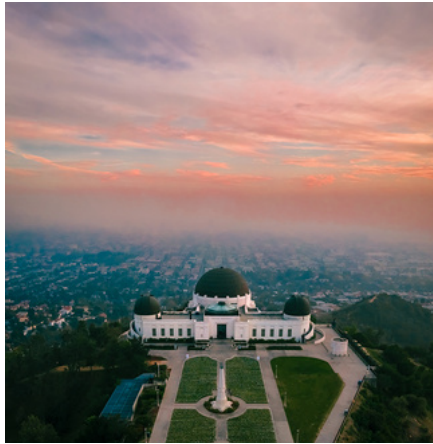

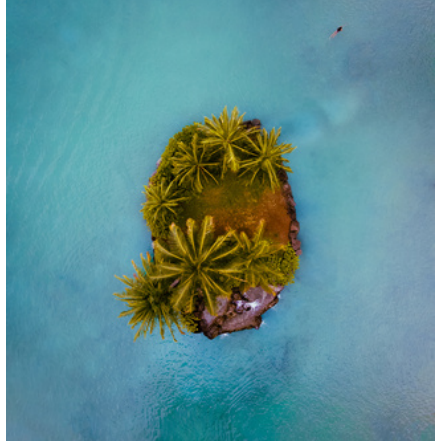

SOCIAL PROMOTION

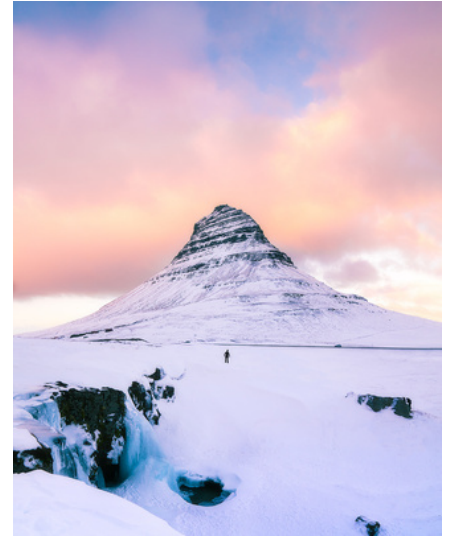

I also offer social promotion in the form of high-quality content on my highly-engaged and content/community focused Instagram page (6.8K followers) or TikTok account (6.4K followers), designed to drive my growing audience to your destination or engage with your product or service.
